ALCHYMIA

Eclectica è il logo più indicato per giustificare la presenza, nel Catalogo, di 6 Collezioni che, liberamente, ma con proprietà di linguaggio artistico, declinano quel rigoglioso fenomeno del gusto, l'ArtDèco, che, a partire dai primi del '900, ha caratterizzato le arti decorative e visive, l'architettura e l'arredamento, la moda e la cinematografia, rispondendo ad un eterno bisogno dell'uomo di rendere sempre più bello qualcosa con opere d'arte e d'alto artigianato. Cosa che fa, da sempre, Alchymia.

Chi, da ogni parte del mondo, quotidianamente, visita il grande e organizzato Laboratorio di Alchymia a Lentate sul Seveso, prova, sulla propria pelle e nei sensi, l'emozione che emana dall'Atelier dell'Artista-Decoratore Lucio Doro, profondo conoscitore delle esperienze di Jacque Emile Ruhlmann, di Jean Dunand, di Paul Poiret e di Maurice Marinot e, a sua volta, vero Maestro, per i suoi allievi, di questo stile, forse il più eclettico per le tante interpretazioni storiche, nei revival che non finiscono mai e nelle contemporanee, a volte pervasive, applicazioni. Come avviene oggi.

Le 6 Collezioni qui presentate – Flora, Desdemona, Argento, Damasco, Egeo, Narciso - pur derivando dalle comuni radici art déco, rappresentano il pragmatismo creativo di Alchymia e la sua duttilità a servire mercati di affezione nelle varie parti del mondo. Si tratta, infatti, di 6 libere ed educate interpretazioni decorative a volte opulente e lussuose, a volte geometriche o quasi astratte, ma anche esotiche, tropicali, floreali, zoomorfe...

L'attenta lettura di questo Catalogo rivela una miniera di opportunità professionali e di mercato per la doviziosa e dinamica offerta strumentale alla decorazione e all'architettura degli interni che intendono rispettare i gusti dei fruitori.

Eclectica offre:

- 6 diverse declinazioni stilistiche di decoro
- infinite possibilità di contaminazioni tra prodotti o famiglie
- opportunità di definire in modo stilisticamente diversificato gli ambienti
- disponibilità aziendale a progettare, su richiesta, prodotti e funzioni necessari a completare e a personalizzare gli interni

Eclectica è un ricco Catalogo progettato per il variegato mercato del lusso, domestico e pubblico, dai prodotti rigorosamente decorati a mano, con le inevitabili differenze tra un pezzo e l'altro da considerare come pregi della manualità esecutiva e, quindi, come garanzia di autenticità. Mai un pezzo uguale all'altro. Perché i valori delle mani dei decoratori di Alchymia non possono essere omologati, perché non c'è mai riproduzione, ma, sempre, e solo, produzione, pezzo per pezzo.

Alla base di tutto questo imponente lavoro progettuale c'è la storia dell'Atelier Lucio Doro con gli studi giovanili, le scuole specializzate, le esperienze di lavoro, la conoscenza della storia dell'arte, l'approfondimento del rigoglioso e lungo periodo dell'Art Dèco, la vasta letteratura sugli autori, soprattutto francesi, ben documentata dalla biblioteca aziendale a cui si attinge quotidianamente come a fonti genuine stilisticamente affidabili. Le 6 Collezioni non sono soltanto espressioni produttive per i mercati, ma sono, anche, riferimenti culturali e storici sulle cui basi solide poggia Alchymia anche nella sua evoluzione.

Eclectica represents the most suitable logo to pinpoint the 6 collections contained inside the Catalogue, which express the blooming Art Dèco style with freedom and artistic propriety of language at the same time. This style, that started at the beginning of '900, distinguished decorative and visive arts, architecture and furniture, fashion and cinematography and tried to meet the everlasting human need for beauty through objects d'art and elevated handicraft. Alchymia has been doing this all along.

Anyone visiting the great and well organized Alchymia laboratory (located in Lentate sul Seveso) from all over the world every day, can experience the emotion coming from the Atelier of the artistic-designer Lucio Doro, who deeply knows the mirable work of Jacque Emile Ruhlmann, Jean Dunand, Paul Poiret and Maurice Marinot. He is himself a real Master for his pupils on this style, probably the most eclectic one because of its many historical interpretations, the neverending revivals and the contemporary, even pervading, applications. It occurs right today.

The six present collections – Flora, Desdemona, Argento, Damasco, Egeo, Narciso – although having common art déco origins, represent the creative pragmatism of Alchymia and its flexibility of being at the service of fonded markets all over the world. In fact, we are talking about six free and well mannered decorative interpretations, at times magnificent and luxurious, others geometrical or even abstract, as well as exotic, tropical, floreal or animal resembling...

The careful reading of this Catalogue discloses a number of professional and business opportunities thanks to its rich and dynamic proposal of decoration and interior design in the respect of the consumers' taste.

Eclectica offers:

- Six different decoration styles
- Infinite fusion blends of products or families
- Possibility to define the various locations with different styles
- Upon request, possibility to design products and functions necessary to integrate and customise interiors

Eclectica is a rich Catalogue designed for the varied luxury market, both private and public, including severely hand decorated products with their unavoidable piece to piece differences, which represent the peculiarity of hand made items and therefore guarantee of authenticity. The hands virtue of Alchymia's decorators cannot be homologated, because there is no reproduction, but always and only production, piece by piece.

At the bottom of this impressive design work, there is Atelier Lucio Doro's history, juvenile studies, specialized schools, work experiences, the history of art knowledge, in depth study of the rich and the longlasting art Dèco period, the wide authors literature (especially the French one), well documented by the company's library, daily referred to as a genuine and reliable source. The 6 collections are not only a production demonstration for the markets, but they represent cultural and historical references as well, on which solid base Alchymia lays for its evolution.

COLLECTION

Gli anni '30 di Hollywood sono sinonimo di glamour, ben interpretato dai designers arredatori. Questo stile porta il nome di Hollywood Regency.

Alchymia studia questi anni '30, ma senza dimenticare la sua cultura europea, gli equilibri del suo umanesimo, l'educazione del suo mestiere, la committenza più internazionale, le misure che appartengono alla storia. Infatti il Regency Hollywoodiano si tuffa nella mediterraneità dove gli istinti, le suggestioni e anche il pop si nobilitano assumendo quell'aristocrazia della bellezza e della misura che appartengono ad Alchymia.

The Thirties' in Hollywood are synonymous of glamour, well represented by the furniture designers. This style is called Hollywood Regency.

Alchymia studies this period, without forgetting its European culture, its humanism balance, its job manner, the international buyers, the measure pertaining to history. In fact, the Hollywood Regency meets the Mediterranean style, where instincts, suggestions and also pop are made noble and become the sophisticated beauty and moderation typical of Alchymia.

COLLECTION

Questa Collezione coglie, in filigrana, alcuni aspetti caratteristici del famoso interior designer Jean-Michel Frank (1895-1941), particolarmente noto per un minimalismo ante litteram realizzato, però, con materiali di pregio. Una contraddizione in terminis genialmente risolta.

La Collezione Argento ha un background che include anche questo Autore, soprattutto per la testimonianza tecnico-artistica di Alchymia nella creazione straordinaria e sorprendente di contrappunti e di diafane trasparenze con texture di sublime qualità.

This Collection's filigree seizes some of the most characteristics aspects of the interior designer Jean-Michel Frank (1895-1941), known for his ante litteram minimalist interiors, realized with luxury materials. A briallintly solved contradiction.

Argento Collection includes this Artist within its background, especially through Alchymia's technical-artistic effort of creating extraordinary counterpoint and diaphanous transparencies with sublime quality textures.

COLLECTION

La Collezione si ispira, con ampi margini interpretativi, a Pierre-Paul Jouve (1878-1973), ammirato come pittore e come scultore degli animali della profonda Africa. Un artista giramondo che non s'è perso un grande zoo europeo, esplorando in lungo e in largo il Medio Oriente ed il continente americano alla ricerca di sempre nuove esperienze e di influenze esotiche. Potente nelle figure, meticoloso nelle tecniche, animatore instancabile delle visioni decorative.

Alchymia rende omaggio, con la Collezione, ad un autentico Maestro, percorrendo alcune tematiche a lui care, ancora oggi ammirate nei musei del mondo.

The Collection is inspired, although with large interpretation margin, to Pierre-Paul Jouve (1878-1973), appreciated both as a painter and as a sculptor of African wild life and animals. A globe trotter artist who visited all the great European zoos, widely explored the Middle East and the American continent, continuously looking for new experiences and exotic influences. He had very powerful figures, accurate techniques and he was a tireless animator of ornamental visions.

Through this Collection, Alchymia pays a tribute to a real Master, by reviewing some of his favourite subjects, still admired in the museums all over the world.
