Digital glass

Da sempre leader nella lavorazione del vetro, Reflex negli ultimi anni ha cercato di implementare e migliorare la sua offerta per affrontare le sfide sempre più audaci che il mercato richiede. Continua ricerca progettuale e continua innovazione tecnologica, sia negli strumenti che nei materiali, hanno portato l'azienda a affinare e far sua la lavorazione della stampa HD su vetro.
Oggi Reflex è in grado di realizzare lastre di vetro di grandi dimensioni che riproducono le venature dei materiali naturali più preziosi. Pietre, marmi e legni sono disponibili in diverse finiture e in grandi formati per esaltare i prodotti e gli ambienti e andare incontro alle esigenze dei progettisti e dei consumatori. Con le sue 38 finiture la stampa HD su vetro è un materiale versatile con il quale rivestire o realizzare pareti, prodotti di arredo e pavimentazioni, ottendendo un prezioso effetto decorativo.

Reflex has always been a leader in glass processing; in recent years has tried to implement and improve its offer to face the increasingly bold challenges that the market is demanding. Continuous project research and continuous technological innovation, in terms of both tools and materials, allow the Company to refine and make its own the processing of HD glass printing.
Today Reflex is able to create large glass slabs that reproduce the vain of the most precious natural materials. Stones, marbles and woods available in different finishes and in large formats to enhance the products and environments.
With its 38 finishes, HD printing on glass is a versatile material with which to cover or create walls, furnishing products and flooring obtaining a precious decorative effect.

LOW THICKNESS

La sottigliezza è il punto strategico di questo materiale che permette di arrivare a uno spessore di 2/4 mm.

Thinness is the strategic advantage offered by this material, which allows for a thickness of only 2/4 mm.

ELEVATE PERFORMANCES

Mantiene tutte le proprietà di resistenza chimica e durabilità tipiche del vetro temperato.

It maintains all the typical properties of tempered glass in terms of chemical resistance and durability.

CUSTOM

Non solo marmo ma anche decori artistici e pattern speciali che danno vita a nuovi stili.

Not only marble, but also artistic decorations and special patterns that give life to new styles.

Grazie a una tecnologia avanzata Reflex è riuscita a esaltare il processo di stampa fino ad ottenere un materiale leggero e versatile con un peso molto inferiore a quello del marmo. Tramite la stampa HD si possono riprodurre i materiali più rari e preziosi senza estrarli dalle cave, rovinando le montagne o il paesaggio.La sottigliezza è il punto strategico di questo materiale che permette di arrivare a uno spessore di 2/4 mm e lo differenzia da tutti gli altri materiali in commercio.

Thanks to an advanced technology Reflex has managed to enhance the printing process to obtain a light and versatile material with a weight much lower than that of marble.
Through HD printing, it is possible to reproduce the most rare and precious materials without extracting them from the quarries, and thus without destroying tthe mountains or the landscape. Thinness is the strategic advantage offered by this material which allows for a thickness of only 2/4 mm and differentiates it from all other materials on the market.

VETRO SFUMATO

Il VETRO SFUMATO la nuova finitura 2022
GLASS NUANCE the new 2022 finishing

Nuove finiture proposte come vere novità prendendo spunto dall'amore per la moda. Le nuove proposte cromatiche esplorano una nuova identità visiva dell'azienda che si propone alla MDW2022 con diversi colori che uniti tra loro creano un forte carattere distintivo ai prodotti. Quattro nuove proposte in nuance cromatica, dal blu al verde, dal grigio al rosa per ridisegnare gli spazi della vita domestica.

New finishes proposed as real novelties inspired by the love for fashion. The new color proposals explore a new visual identity of the company that is proposing itself at MDW2022 with different colors that combined together create a strong distinctive character to the products. Four new proposals in chromatic nuances, from blue to green, from gray to pink to redesign the spaces of domestic life.
